The Gallery Glaces by Yu Ting Wang and Chien Hsing Chen

Multifunctional working interior: As inspired by Glerie Des Glaces, at this limited open site, the spatial construction of the infinite extension, and a variety of uses is the main concept of design. Irregular lines as the overall space to guide and cut the spindle, the space will be effective for segmentation purposes, and show the extension of space. Space and set the dynamic and static space, with different materials and styles as the differentiation, and follow the penetration of the material, so that it can be connected. Indoor objects are all movable, allowing space to become a multi-purpose mobile office space.
